

Talent Show Fundraising Huge Success!!!

Indrina Bhattacharya

It was a great Talent Show put on by the Toronto-Calcutta Foundation (TCF) on Saturday August 25th.

Close to 150 people attended the Show. Performers from ages 6 to 30 years entertained the crowd with their dancing, singing, playing instruments and recitation. Pradipta Das with her wonderful dancing started the evening, then came the MCs Monika Chakraborty & Renee Mahalanobis who shaped the evening into a very enjoyable experience with the help of Stage manager Sanjana (Rhea) Sen.

Roy Chakravarty: Keyboard, Abhishek Mukherjee: Guitar, Subhashini Ramsubrij: Sitar and Anindro Bhattacharya: Violin played various tune for the audience. Vocalists were Sanjana Sen, Shom and Utsha Saha who played classical songs. Nisha Chatterjee, Sanjukta Banerjee and Aparajita Das displayed their dance skills with various themes while Anuska Mukherjee and Indrina Bhattacharya demonstrated their recitation talent. Last performer was Kajori Chakravorty who entertained the crowd with her melodious voice and she also entertained some requests from the audience.

Arun Palit thanked the audience, MCs, performers and volunteer for their generosity and support. Of course, the evening was concluded with a mouth watering East Indian cuisine.

People made comments such as "Children are very talented", "They were wonderful", "I am glad I came", "Food was good", "It was really an enjoyable evening".

Pradipta Das

All in all, it was good to see so many people came out to support TCF. Because of their generosity TCF was able to raise over $10K.

A Huge success!!!
